SEMINARY MARKS 25TH JUBILEE

Two Archbishops And Seven Bishops Attend Celebration at St. Augustine's Seminary

Before a capacity congregation representing two archbishops, seven bishops, fifteen monsignori, 150 members of the clergy, various religious orders, and laity, St. Augustine's seminary celebrated its silver jubilee, Tuesday, October 16. Most Rev. Hatcher O. Gerow, D. D., bishop of Natchez, Miss., celebrated the Pontifical High Mass in thanksgiving at which Most Rev. Joseph F. Rummel, D. D., archbishop of New Orleans, presided with cappa magna.

Six of the former priests ordained at the seminary took part in the ceremonies. Rev. C. Howard, S. V. D., editor of St. Augustine's Messenger, was deacon and Rev. Leo Woods, S. V. D., subdeacon. Rev. Maurice Rousseau, S. V. D., pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, St. Martinville, La., and Rev. Francis Wade, S. V. D., pastor of St. Benedict's, Duxon, La., were deacons of honor. Assistants to Most Rev. Archbishop Rummel were Rev. Anthony Bourges, S. V. D., pastor of Immaculate Heart of Mary, Lafayette, La., and Rev. Leander Martin S. V. D., assistant pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, St. Martinville, La.

The Mass was sung by St. Augustine's mixed choir, under the direction of Rev. Hubert Posjona, S. V. D. St. Stanislaus band under the direction of Brother Romuald played a number of selections before and after the Mass.

Preceding the Mass a procession of acolytes, bishops, monsignori and clergy escorted Archbishop Rummel and the celebrant, Most Rev. Richard O. Gerow, assisted by the Very Rev. Joseph Eckert, S. V. D., provincial of the Southern province. The Rev. Christian Baker, S. V. D., was master of ceremonies.

The silver jubilee address for the occasion was delivered by Most Rev. William O'Brien, D. D., Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago and Secretary of the American Board of Catholic Missions.

In an inspiring address at the Mass emphasized "that Christ established a Church—congregation of all the faithful professing the same faith—partaking of the same sacraments and governed by one visible ruler... that the Lord wanted His Gospel preached to every creature—to the whole world for all times—especially to the poor who yesterday, today and forever, have and do and will comprise 99 percent of the population of the world. All about us are the poor. Men and women of every class and condition, color or creed in all the lands of the world, blind to the things of the spirit, ignorant of the existence of their soul, hungry for the truths of religion—these are the poor to whom Christ would have His Gospel preached... All the world knows today that the Gospel was to be preached to all nations.

In order to understand the first missionary conquest of the world it is only necessary for us to read the Acts of the Apostles... Take the Bible—Catholic or Protestant—and in the back of it you will find a map illustrating the journeys of St. Paul... For more than three hundred years the Apostles and their successors—the first missionaries of the world—sowed the seeds of Christianity and watered it with their blood."

Bishop O'Brien said: "It was during these centuries (Middle Ages) that some of the greatest men of the Church found their inspiration to establish great religious orders of men and women who were the crown and glory of the Church then, and without whom today there would be very little missionary work in the outposts of the world. Father Arnold Janssens (founder of the Society of the Divine Word) idea was that the Gospel of Christ might be preached not only to the poor of his country, but to the poor of all the world and like all saintly men who preceded him and the thousands who will follow him until the end of time, he made no distinction as to race, color or condition in the constitution and bylaws of his organization.

The astounding progress of Father Janssens' inspiration may be judged by the latest census of the Society throughout the world taken up in January 1943 when the personnel... numbered 7500 persons which included nearly 30 bishops, almost 2000 priests, nearly 800 seminarians, almost 60 clerical novices, over 1700 brothers and nearly 2500 students in their preparatory seminaries."

In closing his address Bishop O'Brien paid special tribute to St. Augustine's Seminary, saying: "What is now called St. Augustine's Seminary has been engaged in what we think is the greatest work of the Catholic Church now or at any

WAR FUND DRIVE LAGGING

Mrs. George R. Rea again calls the attention of the public to the fact that to date Hancock County has not reached its goal of $3825, for the War Fund. There is so much to still be done for the suffering people across the oceans that it seems strange that one should need to be reminded that there is need for money. There is a great need now to enlist other helpers. The papers are carrying the news of the terrific typhoon that swept the island of Okinawa and the damage done and yet the war fund lags.

War service has not ended. You do not need to be told this if your son is still serving with the occupation forces or with the services troops in this country. For them the war is still going on.

The drive has been extended because some one failed to give and to enlist other givers. If you have not been called upon send or take your check to Mrs. Rea or Mrs. Roger Boh.

"We have won the victory of arms; now let us push on to greater conquests—to the total victory of human justice and decency and faith in mankind."—From President Truman's recent broadcast.

Has Program For China Friendship Day

In keeping with the 34th anniversary of the Republic of China designated as China Friendship Day Miss Julia Blaize presented three of her senior history students in a program on China at the Bay High assembly period on Wednesday. Miss Blaize displayed the American and Chinese flags on the stage and exhibited a copy of Chiang Kai-shek's message to the friends and supporters of the Chinese Republic printed in the Chinese script and signed by him in the same writing. She told the students they had the privilege of reading it in the translation.

Gerry Haas gave her talk along the lines of today's youth and their part in the long war that China suffered and have an instance of young children standing guard for the civilian population as signals of the approach of the enemy. Of China's faith in America and how America fought its way to the victory which brought release to China and aid for its fight in keeping its civilization an ancient culture.

Barbara Drescher gave the every day life of the Chinese children in their homes and in school and showed that their lives and the lives of the American children were similar in many ways. She told of their games many of which we have copied and showed plainly that they and we cannot be people to ourselves—that we are and will always be interdependent.

Barbara Trastrout talked on the aid that has been rendered to China by the United China Relief. The establishment of homes with a paid matron where their children who were made orphans by war are cared for, how nursery schools have been established, health centers and other such necessary units to establish security for children. She said that healthy children are necessary for China's future. She ended with a strong appeal for the support of the War Fund because part of it will go for China Relief.

PERE LE DUC COUNCIL NO. 1522, K. OF C. HOLD INITIATION

On Sunday, October 14th, the Pere LeDuc Council No. 1522, Bay St. Louis, held an initiation. The local council was host to the council of southern Mississippi and from parts of Louisiana.

There was a motorcade from New Orleans in which there were over twenty automobiles and a motorcade from the Coast Counties that was led by a police escort and well over forty cars. There were many visitors from Pascagoula, Biloxi, Gulfport, Hattiesburg, Natchez and Meridian. In all there were over three hundred visitors to this most colorful event.

The morning session started with registration at the Council Home which was followed by a parade led by the St. Stanislaus band to the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, where the entire gathering attended 10 o'clock Mass that was conducted by the Rt. Rev. Monsgr. A. J. Gmelch.

A special sermon was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. H. J. Jacobi. This sermon was one of the highlights of the day's activities. It was timely and to the point and the congregation was fortunate to have heard such a masterful address.

After Mass the members and candidates again led by St. Stanislaus band marched to the local home on Main street where luncheon was served and the exemplification began. At the exemplification there were many dignitaries from the States of Mississippi and Louisiana and some splendid addresses were delivered which all went to make this very colorful event the huge success that it was. There were over sixty new members received into the order who took their degrees. These members were from Mississippi and Louisiana.

This initiation is the first one to be held in Bay St. Louis since 1940. The local council has been very active and their membership is steadily increasing and the plans that they have outlined for the coming year call for big improvements in their hall.

Grand Knight Robert L. Camors and his entire official staff deserve a world of praise for the excellent manner in which they conducted this very successful affair. Bay St. Louis should be proud that it has such an outstanding organization as the Knights of Columbus.

New 1946 Chevrolet Shown; Local Dealer Enthusiastic

A. E. Voight Chevrolet dealer returned from New Orleans today where he attended a preview of the new 1946 Chevrolet in both cars and trucks at the company's zone headquarters.

Al said "It's a honey and unless the strikes tie us up too much you can expect an early showing of the cars and trucks right here in Bay St. Louis."

Louisiana and Mississippi dealers attending this preview were confident that the 1946 Chevrolet will maintain the record of top value sales, which Chevrolet reached in 10 of the 11 years of power automobile production and meet the unprecedented pent-up demand for new cars and trucks.

"Following the same policy as always, the new Chevrolet will be displayed simultaneously in dealers show rooms throughout the entire country," Mr. Voight said.

Through the long war period, car owners have been forced to get along with their old cars. At the same time we dealers have expended every effort to service these cars, and keep them rolling for the duration.

Mr. Voight especially stressed care, with a warning that motorists should not expect the new 1946 Chevrolet to be available in large quantities immediately. The supply to dealers will naturally increase as production in the giant Chevrolet plants permits.

JOIN THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

JOIN the Chamber of Commerce, "Help build Hancock County," should become the by word of our people. The Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce has been reactivated, under the name of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. A membership committee has been appointed and these men are active in their work. It behooves every person who is interested in the development of Hancock County to become an active member of this organization. Through it, the people of Hancock County will be able to speak with a united front. It will be the means of showing the possibilities of our section. In reality it will become, under proper guidance and leadership, the means of obtaining that which we all so earnestly desire, the building of Hancock County, industrially and agriculturally. We owe it to ourselves, to the boys and girls who are returning from war, and to the future generations, to work towards that end.

Much can be done in this County towards its development if we will only apply ourselves to the task of seeing that it is done. That is the job that the Chamber of Commerce can do. We have many opportunities before us to encourage industries to locate in our County that will use products that our soil can produce. Little attention will be paid to our section, however, unless we can show to interested parties the possibilities. This is not a one man job. We must show to them that the people as a whole are interested. It then becomes the job of an organization that speaks for the people, the Chamber of Commerce.

Of course it will cost you a few dollars per year to maintain your membership in the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. This is a real investment when you consider what it may mean to you, your children and your County as a whole.

Join the Chamber of Commerce and make a pledge that you will become an active member. That you will not sit idly by, and let the other fellow do the work and then proceed to offer criticisms and attempt to tear down what has been done. Promise that you will let all of your personal prejudices, envy, hatred and factional feelings fall by the way side, and that you will work for the betterment of your County. If you can and will do this you will make a good member of the Chamber of Commerce, and in days to come you may have much to be thankful for.

SCHOOL LUNCHES

ON our visit to the Kiln School for the 4-H club meeting we were treated to a real good cup of coffee at the lunch room of the Kiln Consolidated School, which is supervised by Mrs. Stella Favre. Of course we had to pry around and ask a few questions and see what was boiling in a few of the pots, and we soon had the low down on just what was taking place in this kitchen and dining room combined, which was immaculately clean and filled with an aroma of the best cooking. We talked to Mrs. Favre and were told that the children were served a hot meal for 10 cents and included in the meal was one half pint of milk from the local cooperative creamery.

A couple of hours later we were at the Leetown School, and there we had the pleasure of visiting and eating our lunch in another School Lunch room that was equal to the first in cleanliness. The food that was served was equal to any that we have ever had the pleasure of eating. A real wholesome meal. This meal is served to the children for six cents.

We asked why the difference in charge and we were told that at Leetown they were not in a position as yet to have necessary refrigeration for the care of the certified milk that they would have to serve, and not being able to serve milk reduces the cost of the meal.

We have thought about these two lunch rooms several times since our visit to these schools, and we can readily see what a service the school authorities are rendering to the people of these communities in establishing lunch rooms for the school children to secure warm meals at low costs. Without these facilities it would be necessary for the children to carry lunch, which by noon time would be cold.

The parents certainly can appreciate the fact that it is far more costly to prepare a cold lunch for your child to carry to school than what they have to pay for a hot, well-balanced lunch served them at the school. The parents certainly can appreciate the further fact that it means much to the health of their children.

We understand that the Federal Government makes some contribution to this program and we want to add our little bit, and say that we hope that they continue this particular practice, and if they drop off, we hope that the State and Local authorities will see that this good work is continued among our school children, at least for those who are not able, on account of distance, to go home at the noon hour for their hot meals.

CONGRATULATIONS, ST. AUGUSTINE SEMINARY

ON the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the St. Augustine Seminary here in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, we are happy to extend to the members of the Society of the Divine Word our hearty felicitations in the name of the Faculty and student body at St. Stanislaus. At the same time we also congratulate His Excellency Most Reverend Richard O. Gerow, Bishop of the Diocese of Mississippi, whose brilliant foresight in sponsoring and encouraging this grand institution went far in furthering its almost miraculous success.

It would be presumptuous on our part to extol the great work done by the members of the Society of the Divine Word during their twenty-five years here. Their deeds sing their praises far more eloquently than mere words could ever proclaim. We will content ourselves in saying that the erection of St. Augustine's Seminary here has called down God's choicest Blessings not only on the Society of the Divine Word but also on the Diocese of Natchez and the City of Bay St. Louis as well.

The magnificent record of accomplishments during the past twenty-five years augurs an even more glorious future. The years of struggle and hardships are now past history. Today, St. Augustine's Seminary stands as a great monument to the enterprising spirit of charity and zeal for the spiritual welfare of mankind. In particular it radiates the spirit of christian tolerance which will go far in eradicating the racial inequalities prevalent throughout the country and especially here in the Southland.

May God continue to Bless and Foster this seminary which has already given to the Church nineteen priests. The Society of the Divine Word has planted the seed well; therefore, God will grant them an abundant harvest. St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw, Saturday, October 13, 1945.

Mr. C. A. Stewart, President of the Mississippi Travelers Association, stated that reports are beginning to come in from all parts of the state indicating that rapid strides are being made and that fine cooperation is found, in conducting the state-wide survey on "Jobs for Veterans." The Good Beer Retailer

—must not be jeopardized by the irresponsible

The monthly bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce in one of Mississippi's most progressive cities carried the following paragraph in August of this year:

"United States Brewers Foundation—This organization has done an outstanding job in seeing that irresponsible outlets for the retail sale of beer do not jeopardize the business of other retailers or create undesirable conditions. Each retailer is expected to see that his place of business is conducted according to both the letter and the spirit of the law."

Of course, this Committee appreciates this public recognition of its work, but the paragraph is repeated here because it so clearly explains the self-regulation work of the beer industry in Mississippi.

van Johnson and Esther Williams in M. G. M.'s Technicolor Film, with Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra

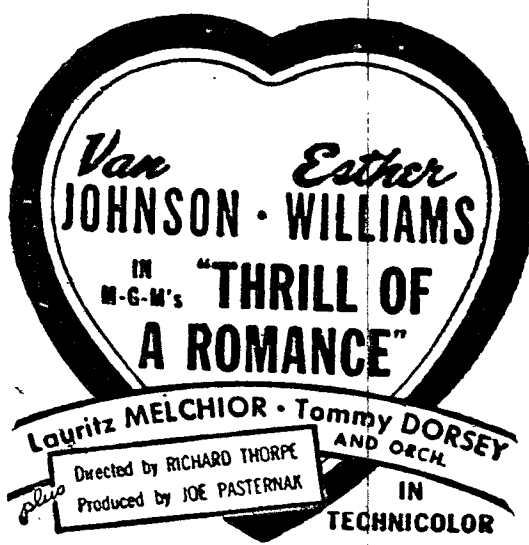

In open defense of the warning that you can't please everybody and shouldn't try, Joe Pasternack has loaded the latest MGM musical show in Technicolor with a wide assortment of attractions and talents, setting them off against splendid backgrounds indoors and out and keeping them all within the bounds of a timely story of young love.

"Thrill of a Romance" has Van Johnson, the current heart throb of the younger set, in Marine uniform; Esther Williams, who looks beautiful and swims amazingly, in a colorful display of costumes; Lauritz Melchior, the Metropolitan Opera's top Wagnerian actor, in a role which is half music and half comedy, and Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra setting the tempo in their smoothest style. It has something for everybody and a full hour and three-quarters of top entertainment for the greatest portion of the motion picture audience.

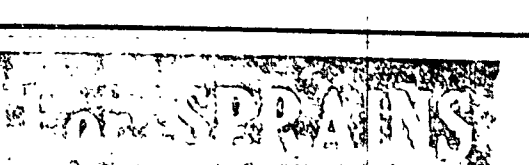

If you think an operatic tenor is stepping out in strange company, be assured that he seems completely at home in his first screen role, and that the voice which millions have come to know on the radio will thrill the house. His selections cover a musical range from "Vesti La Giuba" to popular ballads written for the film—love songs, folk songs and drinking songs all offered with the same full voice and the same infectious good humor.

As for the romance, it is the light and engaging story of a girl who marries a business genius but falls in love with a Marine hero after her husband leaves for a big Washington deal on their wedding day. As it turns out, they weren't legally married anyway. And under the watchful eye of an opera star torn between his diet and his interest in love, the young people are happily paired off at the close. Performances, capably directed by Richard Thorpe—the team of Pasternack and Thorpe also did "Two Girls and a Sailor"—are in complete harmony with the production. Johnson, learning to swim or falling in love, will not fail to delight his admirers, and Miss Williams proves herself a promising actress as well as an accomplished swimmer.

TAX COLLECTIONS

The Commission released a report on the second day of October which shows collections since the first of January to be $25,414,493.64, as compared with $25,350,253.94 for the same period of 1944. The sales tax accounts for 44.43% of total collections in 1945. The amount brought in by the sales tax in 1945 is $11,391,419.39 as compared with $9,957,732.84 in the same period of 1944. Income tax collections in 1945 show $7,000,911.42 compared with $9,118,59.04 in the same period of 1944. The difference in the collection of income tax in 1945 and in 1944 is accounted for because of a reduction in the rate for 1945. The collection of tobacco tax in 1945 shows $2,805,603.40 in the same period of 1944. The amount collected this year on beer and wine is more than a hundred thousand dollars in excess of the 1944 collection for the same period. The severance tax on crude oil for 1945 shows a total of $893,265.29. The general fund balance in the treasury on October 3 was $21,396,128.83, with all matured bills paid.

"BLACK MARKET"

In the month of August the State Tax Collector, Carl Craig, collected $53,022.73 from the so-called "black market" on the whiskey illegally sold in the state. Since this law went into effect in April 1944 Mr. Craig has collected $823,987.06. During that time the expense incident to the enforcement of the law has been $73,821.84, which has gone, in the main, to about twenty-two people employed in that connection. Mr. Craig predicts that by the end of the year the amount collected from the beginning of operation under the law will have reached a million dollars.

STATE FARM MARKET

A delegation of legislators headed by Si Corley, Agricultural Commissioner, returned last week from a trip to Atlanta, Georgia, where they investigated the farm market in operation in that state. The Georgia system, seemed to appeal to the legislators and business men who made the investigation and it is believed that some marketing plan will be presented for consideration when the Legislature convenes in January.

GOV. BAILEY FOR VOLUNTEERS

Governor Bailey has given out a strong statement in favor of the volunteer system of raising a state quota of 7700 recruits for the Regular Army. He thinks young Mississippians will find much in the army to appeal to them and that the quota can easily be reached in that way. Recruiting stations have been opened at Jackson, Tupelo, Meridian, Greenwood, Hattiesburg and McComb.

HIGHWAY FUNDS

Congress is working out a plan for highway construction under the large sum appropriated for that purpose. The federal funds are to be spent in the states on a fifty-fifty basis, which makes it necessary for the states to put up the same amount allocated by the Federal Government. It is tentatively stated that Mississippi will be awarded about eight million dollars if the state puts up an equal amount. All of this will not have to be available at one time. The highway Commissioners and Supervisors over the state have been working on plans for spending the money if and when it becomes available.

DEARMAN RESIGNS

W. F. Dearmann, who has been director of the State Game and Fish Commission, has resigned that position for the purpose of entering private business. Mr. Dearmann will be succeeded by R. M. Freeman who has been connected with the Commission for several years and is familiar with the duties of the position.

ENLARGE FEDERAL BUILDING

A report from Washington says an effort is being made and will probably succeed, to have the Federal building in Jackson enlarged to take care of increased demands for floor space to accommodate federal activities. The plan is to more than double the floor space of the building.

RAKING AROUND—

The new car tags are now on sale by sheriffs of the respective counties.—Burford Yerger, secretary of the Mississippi Bankers Association, has officer for the Commercial Bank and been elected vice-president and trust company in Jackson.—R. E. Selby, mayor of Vicksburg, died in that city on September 29, at the age of sixty-two years.—Biloxi is to have a new radio station, W. L. O. X. The names of J. S. Love, Jr., and his wife are mentioned in the charter of incorporation.—Lewis May, former state treasurer and now connected with that office, has been ill for two months. His many friends will be glad to know that he is slightly improved at this writing. The charter of the United Nations, as adopted at San Francisco has now been ratified by twenty-six nations. The permanent domicile of the organization will be in the United States but the location has not yet been decided.—It has been announced that the Masonic Corporation of Laurel will spend a million dollars for extension and enlargement of its plant.—In Java last week 1,600,000 tons of sugar were found stored away that will ease the situation in a small way.

Squirrels Reported To Be Numerous

Hunters report that they are able to make nice kills of squirrels almost anywhere in the county, with little Mr. Bushy Tail being more numerous this year than in many previous years.

The first part of the split dove season, Sept. 16 to Oct. 1, was disappointment to all hunters, as there just weren't any doves to shoot at.

JOAN DAVIS AND JACK HALEY STARRED IN NEW "GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS"

At A. & G. Theatre Sunday And Monday

Top comedy favorites Joan Davis and Jack Haley, are starred in RKO Radio's glittering new film musical "George White's Scandals," with Gene Krupa and his band taking care of the music. Riotous comedy, many new musical numbers, and beautiful girl ensembles feature the show.

Miss Davis and Haley play star comics in "The Scandals," whose romance goes on the rocks when Haley spinelessly submits to the domination of his spinster sister. Another romance is that between Philip Terry, dance director of "The Scandals" and a pretty dancer, Martha Holliday, daughter of a former "Scandals" queen who married a British peer. When he finds out that she's the daughter of a peeress, he thinks his suit is hopeless. Laughs come thick and fast before these romances are patched up, and love triumphs.

Standouts on the musical side in Fain's "I Wake Up in the Morning and It's You," sung by Miss Davis and Haley; the same composers "I Want to be the Drummer in the Band," performed by Krupa and his band with the "Scandals Sirens"; "Life Is Just a Bowl of Cherries," by Lew Brown and Ray Henderson, sung by Beverly Wills, young daughter of Miss Davis; Leigh Harline's "Bouquet and Lace," a chorus number with a ballet specialty by Miss Holliday; "E. H. S.," a Krupa specialty number; Krupa's jam session, "Leave Us Leap"; electric organ virtuoso Ethel Smith's duet with Krupa, and Miss Davis and Haley's comedy burlesque number, "Who Killed Vaudeville?"

Additional supporting players, in a cast of more than a hundred, are Margaret Hamilton, Glenn Tryon, Fritz Feld, Bettejane Greer, Audrey Young, Rose Murphy, Neely Edwards, Tom Noonan and Dorothy Sebastian. George White produced under the executive supervision of Jack J. Gross and Nat Holt, and Felix Faust directed. Screenplay was written by Hugh Wedlock, Howard Snyder, Parke Levy and Howard Green from an original story by Wedlock and Snyder.

Attends Meeting of Miss. High School Band and Orchestra Directors and Committees

G. F. (Bud) Rooney spent the week end in Hattiesburg with the executive committee of the Mississippi High School Band and Orchestra Directors and Committees of the Miss. Southern College and the Hattiesburg Chamber of Commerce to plan for the State Band Clinic to be held in Hattiesburg this year on December 12th, 13th and 14th. There will be three bands of eighty pieces, each to attend this clinic; also, all the band directors in the state. These three bands will consist of the better musicians from all the bands in the State, and Bay St. Louis will be well represented with members of both of the local bands in each of the three bands. Mr. Ravelli, Director of Bands at Michigan State will direct the Concert Band, Mr. Butler, Director of Bands at Alabama State University, will be director of the Marching Band, Mr. Mullins, Director of Bands at Byrd High School at Shreveport, La. and Mr. Brandon, Director of the band at Fort Smith, Arkansas High School will be in charge of the reading band. Mr. Ravelli will also work with the reading band during the clinic.

A program will be given by the Marching Band on Thursday night, Dec. 13th, and several bands from the State will be on this program. Those invited were: the Hattiesburg High School Band, the Laurel High School Band, the Columbia High School Band, the Gulfport High School Band, and the Biloxi High School Band. This will be a very colorful event as each of the bands listed above will perform on the field at the Mississippi Southern College. Mr. Butler's band will be made up of band students from bands all over the state, each will wear their own uniform from their band. This alone will be extremely beautiful and will be worth the price asked. Butler is considered one of the best, if not the best man, in the entire United States in drilling and marching bands.

A program will be given by the Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Ravelli the last night of the Clinic, Friday, Dec. 14th. This concert will interest everyone. Mr. Ravelli will have some very unique numbers on his program such as: "Regatta" a piano solo with band accompaniment.

"Song of Norway," which has a soprano and baritone solo with band accompaniment. All of the personnel of the band will be High School students in the State.

The students attending the clinic will be subject to the Mississippi Southern College rules and regulations as every student will stay on the campus. The registration of the students will start Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 2:00 o'clock P. M.

The admission to be charged for the above events will be 50c plus tax for each performance or one dollar for both the concert and the marching events.

HISTORY OF USS MISSISSIPPI

30 August 1945
Aboard the battleship MISSISSIPPI, Sagami Wan Bay, Tokyo, Japan.

Unlike her previous namesake she did not enter the cloud of gun smoke. Like the first "Missy" did some 92 years ago, but instead with many other ships of the mighty THIRD FLEET, entered this bay to defend the suit No. 5025 in said Court of Mrs. Clara Lotz, assignee of Lena Hammer and Chris Hammer.

The same being, a suit to foreclose a mortgage on the above described land.

rendered crew stands on the stern while our own prize crews bring them in.

The Admiral of our Battleship Division held flag raising ceremonies on our Quarterdeck as a Lt. Commander from the State of Mississippi, who presented our ship with the State Flag of Mississippi, to be flown upon our entering inner Tokyo Bay.

Overhead our Aircraft kept a watchful eye on the Japanese, sweeping low and always investigating everything, in order that any signs of treachery may be determined and taken care of quickly.

The only odd thing that I have noticed is that the lights in the cities and in outlying houses remain off throughout the night. This indicates that the Japanese air-raid precautions must still be in effect. This may be due to the fact that the final signing has not yet taken place. So while we await the order that will carry us in to the inner Tokyo Bay and to the final destination that we started out on four years ago. Let me disclose to you the saga of one of the oldest Battleships in operation today. Her twenty-eight years of hazardous duty are unsurpassed by any other ship of the line. The third battleship to bear the name of the State of Mississippi. This trip to Japan is but a return bout for the "Missy." As Flagship for Commodore M. C. PERRY, the first Mississippi sailed into Tokyo Bay some 92 years ago, to open the doors of Japan to world trade. The Commanding Officer then was Captain SIDNEY ROBERT E. LEE, brother of General ROBERT E. LEE. During the Civil War, Captain Lee became Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate Navy, and at the same time General Lee, was Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate Army. It was in this war that the MISSISSIPPI was severely damaged in the Battle of Port Hudson and subsequently destroyed.

The second Mississippi displacing 13,000 tons was commissioned in 1907. She played an early part in the beginning of Aviation. She was demolished in 1913, prior to World War I and later sold to Greece.

The present MISSISSIPPI now displacing 40,000 tons was commissioned Dec. 18, 1917. She saw little duty in the first world war, and contented herself in the interim period of peace with normal duties both in the Atlantic and Pacific waters.

The fateful day of December 7, found the "Missy" along with her sister ships of Battleship Division THREE, the NEW MEXICO and IDAHO on neutrality patrol in the icy waters of the Arctic Ocean. Returning to the United States for a short yard period, and then heading her bow Westward to the Pacific and to war.

The early months of 1942 were spent waiting for the role that we were destined to play in the chronology of the Pacific War. Acting as the second line of defense for the Midway and Solomon Islands battles, and was not until 1943 that the first of our, now many, devastating bombardments took place. KISKA, was our target then securing the Aleutian Islands we returned home for a short leave after thirteen months away from the United States.

Back out, to sea to participate in practically every major landing operation in the Pacific. Firing over 12 million pounds of steel, probably more than any other ship in history. We supported landings on Makin, Kwajalein, Toroa, Wotje, Kaveing, Peleliu, Leyte Luzon and Okinawa. On October 25th, 1944, when the Japanese Navy was determined to prevent General MacArthur's return to the Philippines, the "Missy" low on ammunition after supporting the landing on Leyte, took her gallant place as Rear Admiral WELLES' flagship in the Battle Line across Surigao Strait. Along with other ships of Rear Admiral OLDEN-DORE's task group, which crossed the "T" on the Japs force and practically annihilated them.

In revenge the Japs tried repeatedly to knock us out of action with their "Kamikaze Corps" finally scoring a hit on January 9, 1945. At the Luzon operation. The damage inflicted was heavy, but we remained on until our objective was completed. After a short period at Pearl Harbor for repairs we returned again to: "Seek out the enemy and destroy him." Our fire power was increased by three hundred per cent. We then went to OKINAWA to support another operation after another successful victory we went to Leyte for a short period.

We were again ready to meet our foe. On August 19, 1945, when word reached us of the Japs acceptance of our Potsdam Ultimatum, we knew that when we did go to Japan that it would be all over. The anticipated invasion would not come, but instead it would be a cupation force to insure peace. Our constant prayers have been answered "The War is Over."

Such outstanding Naval Officers as Admiral R. A. SPRUANCE, Admiral REICHMUTH, and Admiral T. S. WILKINSON, have commanded the "Old Missy" which has lived up to the tradition of the State for which she is named "True Hospitality" which in the Navy means a "Happy Ship."

Today she is skippered by her 25th Commanding Officer, Captain J. T. CROWE, Jr., USN, of Washington, D. C. Capably assisting Captain CROWE as the "Missy's" Executive Officer is Commander F. M. CARTER, USN, of Centralia, Kansas.

October 21, Designated as Navy Sunday

New Orleans, La., Oct. 16.—October 21, which has been designated as Navy Sunday, will be a special day of tribute to the men in all the services who lost their lives at sea in the defense of the United States.

The Navy League is asking the American people everywhere to send one flower to one of the designated ports nearest their own community in time to arrive before midnight on October 20. The League suggests that where possible the flower sent be either home grown or wild, and in no case should the expenditure exceed a modest sum.

In the Eighth Naval District, comprising seven southern states and the northwest portion of Florida, the ports named are Pensacola, Florida, Mobile, Alabama, and Corpus Christi, Texas. In mailing not more than one flower to any one of these three ports they should be addressed care of the following:

Senior Chaplain, U. S. Navy, Port Director, Mobile, Alabama.

All flowers received by these chaplains will be placed on Naval vessels and following appropriate all-faith ceremonies at the respective docks, a ship will proceed to sea from each port and when the vessel reaches a point beyond the sight of land the flowers will be scattered on the waters.

TIRE APPLICATIONS NEARING MILLION

Washington, Sept. 17.—"OPA Administrator Chester Bowles estimated tonight that backlog of unfilled applications for passenger car tires may reach one million by September 30, compared with 517,715 at the end of July.

A joint OPA and war production board statement said that the demand for tires is so far ahead of current production that it will be many months before motorists' needs can be filled.
Bowles said that the one million requests are applications for which ration boards cannot issue certificates because their monthly quotas have been exhausted."

Is There any difference in savings banks?

For more than a number of years mutual savings banks in the State of Mississippi have gone thru every cycle of prosperity and depression without ever yet being compelled to tell their depositors, "We are sorry we cannot return your deposits." There is more to a savings bank than safety. There is sound counsel supplied by courteous officers, there is advice to those who have problems pertaining to the building of homes, travel, education, deaths, wills and a hundred and one other things that affect our daily lives.

Courteous As The Old South

Throughout the colorful history of the South, the word "Courtesy" has been given true expression. The L&N strives to continue that tradition as a living reality.

But the South itself, and this Railroad which has so faithfully served its interests for nearly a century, have changed greatly.

For over 95 years, the "Old Reliable" has aided the enormous development of the South and welded together a wide expanse of Southern territory. Its ever-mounting contribution in taxes in support of government, including schools and highways, its purchases and those of its 34,000 employees, its dependable service—all have accrued to the vast growth of the Southern region.

During the last four years, it has worked primarily to win the war. With glorious Peace, it is now undertaking to improve its facilities and service—its present improvement program is more than $28,000,000.

As constant as Southern courtesy, the L&N now strives to promote still greater Southern progress—to champion agricultural and industrial development. It hopes to merit continued public confidence and good will.

NO doubt you'll want your new BENDIX soon. Most folks do. So come in and see us quickly. Let's talk it over, and get the details done!

Maybe you'd first like to see what this wash-day wonder does—how it washes, rinses, damp-dries, cleans itself and shuts itself off—all without your lifting a finger. Then it's even more urgent that you come in soon—today if you can!

Because if you want your BENDIX quickly—and chances are you will—we'll both be pleased if you are one of our "first-to-be-served!"

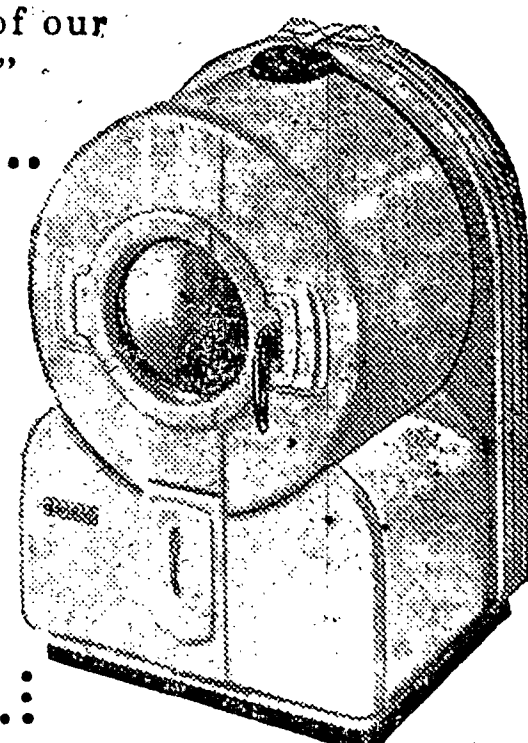

What you do: put in clothes, set a dial, add soap.

What the BENDIX does:

fills itself, tumbles clothes clean, thoroughly tumbles rinses, dries clothes ready for the line or dryer, cleans and empties itself, and shuts off—all automatically! The Bendix takes only 4 square feet of floor space—fits perfectly in kitchen, bathroom, utility room or laundry.

EXCLUSIVE TUMBLE ACTION:
tumbles clothes through suds 60 times a minute, yet so gently that even fine fabrics launder beautifully.

Stanislaus Notes

By Andrew Martinolich

On October 16, the Senior Class of St. Stanislaus was privileged to attend Solemn High Mass at the St. Augustine Seminary on the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the founding of the Seminary. Other than the Senior class, the S. S. C. band was present and played and marched in the procession before and after the Mass. All the students were impressed with the dignity and beauty of the ceremonies. The band also played last Sunday for the Knights of Columbus initiation ceremonies. They led the parade of the candidates and members to 10 o'clock Mass.

Last Friday our football team was defeated by Moss Point, one of the best Coast teams. The victors had to put up a hard fight to overpower the stubborn Rockchaws and gain 13 points. Their team was considerably heavier than ours and weight was the final deciding factor of the game.

The Sodality here at Stanislaus is holding their first "Social" of the school year at the S. S. C. gym on the 20th, which is this Saturday. Almost everyone is familiar with the Socials from last year which were originated by Brother Donald and which were such a grand success. There will be a program of dancing and games and entertainment. The highlight of the entertainment will be songs by the Sodality Glee Club under the direction of Brother Felician.

Last week the first term tests were administered. It was a tough week for most of us but we all pulled through. Almost all of the students are well satisfied with their grades and those very few who aren't are determined to try to do much better next term.

A poll of the high school department on the question, "Do you believe the United Nations Organization will prevent another world war during your lifetime?" was taken here recently by the Institute of Student Opinion sponsored by the Scholastic Magazine. 55% of the student body believe it will not prevent another. Many believed the failure of the leaders to bring God into his place of prominence in discussing the plans for peace will necessarily bring the United Nations Organization to an unsuccessful end. Others, however, have many sound reasons why they believe it will succeed. Some think that man's fear of another world war with all its destructiveness and ruin will overpower his own selfish interests. Many think the great powers can maintain peace by force. This close difference of opinion showed that the students are giving some very serious thought to international affairs.

FAMILY GATHERING

The Scatide family enjoyed a pleasant family gathering last week end. The absence of Mrs. Paul Laguens kept it from being a real reunion.
